What are cookies? This Cookie Policy explains what cookies are and how we use them, the types of cookies we use (i.e., the information we collect using cookies, how that information is used, and how to manage the cookie settings).

Cookies are small text files that are used to store small pieces of information. They are stored on your device when the website is loaded on your browser. These cookies help us: 1) make the website function properly and more secure, 2) provide for a better user experience, and 3) understand how the website performs so we can make improvements for the user.

How do we use cookies? As is customary, our website uses first-party and third-party cookies for several purposes. 1) First-party cookies are mostly necessary for the website to function properly without collecting any of your personal identifiable data. 2) Third-party cookies used on our website are mainly for understanding how the website performs, how you interact with our website, keeping our services secure, providing advertisements that are relevant to you, and all in all providing you with a better and improved user experience and help speed up your future interactions with our website.

You are in control and can manage cookie preferences using Cookie Settings: You can change your cookie preferences any time by clicking the above button. This will let you revisit the cookie consent banner and change your preferences or withdraw your consent right away. In addition to this, different browsers provide different methods to block and delete cookies used by websites. You can change the settings of your browser to block/delete the cookies.
